Letter No. 301 of 1930-31, dated 1st September 1930 from the Muzrai Commissioner stating that Lokasevaniratha Mr. Amble Anniah Pandit has offered a further endowment of Rs. 5,600 with the request that 56 acres of land at Heggadahalli (belonging to the temple) now under cultivation may be purchased at Rs. 100 per acre and assigned for the Sivakuta of the Nanjangud temple and the entire feeding conducted in his name and requesting sanction to the donor's wishes being complied with:

"I have the honor to forward herewith copy of letter No. H. 76—30, dated 15th August 1930, from the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District, in regard to an endowment to the Nanjangud temple by Lokasevaniratha Mr. Amble Anniah Pandit, and to state as follows:—

The Sub-Division Officer has in concurrence with the Dharmadarsis of the temple, recommended that these lands as well as 7 acres 27 guntas out of the Kalhalli lands of the temple, may be assigned towards Mr. Amble Anniah Pandit's charity. It is no doubt true that all the lands of the temple are pooled together and the income from all the lands are utilised for the various Sevas in the temple. In this view, it may not be necessary to specially set apart any lands for carrying on any particular charity But, having regard to the peculiar nature of the endowment and the donor, it is desirable that his wishes should be complied with, as far as possible.

4. I have consulted the Deputy Commissioner and he is also of opinion that there is no objection to the doner's wishes being complied with.

5. In these circumstances, I request that the proposals of the Deputy Commissioner may be kindly approved. I request the favour of early orders of Government in the matter"

ANNEXURE.

Letter No. H. 76—30, dated 15th August 1930, from the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District, to the Muzrai Commissioner in Mysore.

Endowment to Nanjangud Temple by Lokasevaniratha Mr. Amble Anniah Pandit.

In submitting herewith the proposals received from the Sub-Division Officer, Nanjangud, on the endowment of Rs. 5,600 proposed by Lokasevaniratha Mr. Amble Anniah Pandit for the purchase of 56 acres of land at Heggadahalli and endowing the same for the benefit of running the Sivakuta of the Nanjangud temple in the name of the donor, I have the honor to state as follows:—

2. Mr. Amble Anniah Pandit has already endowed an aggregate extent of 16 acres 22 guntas of wet land at Mullur and Immavu villages of Nanjangud Taluk out of the proceeds of which 15 seers of rice per day are being utilized in the Sivakuta in the name of the donor as per Government Order No. 2336-7—Muz. 104-21-207, dated 21st February 1923. Now, he represents that he will endow a further sum of Rs. 5,600 and requests that an extent of 56 acres of land at Heggadahalli may be purchased at an upset price of Rs. 100 per acre and that the entire charges of Sivakuta may be met from the realisations on these lands and feeding conducted in his name.

3. The Sub-Division Officer, Nanjangud, reports that the average monthly cost of the Sivakuta is Rs. 300 or Rs. 3,600 per annum, that 514 pallas of paddy calculated at Rs. 7 per palla, would be required, that the lands at Mullur and Immavu are paying a gutta of 124 pallas and those at Heggadahalli a gutta of 300 pallas, and that the balance of 90 pallas will be met from the temple lands at other villages till the existing lease of Heggadahalli lands terminates at the end of 1931-32, after which time the land will fetch an enhanced gutta of 390 pallas.

4. As an extent of 7 acres 27 guntas out of Heggadahalli temple lands has been ear-marked for the Seva of Mr. Singri Nanjappa of Tiptur as per your letter No. P. C. 94—25-26, dated 22nd January 1930, and what remains is only 48 acres 13 guntas, an extent of 7 acres 27 guntas out of Kalhalli lands of the temple may be assigned to Mr. Amble Anniah Pandit's Charity The Sub-Division Officer states that the lands at Heggadahalli are worth Rs. 500 per acre, that the Dharmadarsis who were consulted agree to the proposal of Mr. Anniah Pandit and that in view of the charitable object, the lands may be assigned to this special charity

5. I request that early sanction of Government may kindly be conveyed to the proposal of the Sub-Division Officer.

6. I may add that the arrangement proposed by Mr. Anniah Pandit will not involve the actual sale and registry of the Khate of the lands in favour of the proposed charity, that the lands to be assigned will continue as hithertofore as the temple property, but that the realisations therefrom will be used for the benefit of the special charity and that a separate account will be maintained in the temple for the income and expenditure of the charity.

7. The application of Mr. Amble Anniah Pandit is enclosed.
